

What's happening... in and around Oak Park

Chicagoland Apartment Association awards the Pierce!

We wanted to share the exciting news that on Friday April 10th we received an award from the Chicagoland Apartment Association for Innovative Building Design for The Pierce at 7 Van Buren at CAA's annual gathering of property managers and CAA members. It was such an honor to not only be nominated and to be up against some very large companies in our category but to be recognized by our peers in our industry we are thrilled that the review committee had been able to see past the bigger names to focus on true innovation.

What's Blooming on Harrison Street Festival

Oak Park's favorite spring street festival, What's Blooming on Harrison, is returning to the Oak Park Arts District on Saturday, May 30th, 2026 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. The event will span Harrison Street from Humphrey Avenue to Highland Avenue. The Craft Beer Garden and Main Stage will keep rocking until 9 p.m.

Eat the Neighborhood Foraging Walk and Lunch: Carnivore Oak Park

Join Dave Odd, full time professional forager to the stars, on a 2 hour journey through the neighborhood to discover over 50 species of edible and medicinal wild plants and mushrooms that grow right in our own backyards.

Followed by an always amazing picnic basket lunch made from some of the foraged ingredients seen on the tour, including ramps, prepared by high end professional chefs (and owners of Carnivore) Brad Knaub & Erik Williams and their talented staff.

Meet right next to Carnivore, 1042 Pleasant St, Oak Park IL, 60302.

A Day In Our Village

Each year on the first Sunday in June the Village sponsors A Day in Our Village, a community festival considered one of the premier community events.

Save the date for the next A Day in Our Village festival will take place from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, June 7!

A Day in Our Village provides an opportunity for current and prospective residents to discover the diversity and variety of civic, cultural, social service, business, educational and religious organizations and groups in the Village.
